

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: John Hawks (info@dwagents.com - 615.730.9977)

ANTOINETTE THOMAS QUALIFIES AS A CHARTER MEMBER OF THE DESTINATION WEDDING & HONEYMOON SPECIALISTS ASSOCIATION

DWHSAs Represents North America's Premier Wedding/Honeymoon Travel Consultants

NASHVILLE, Tenn., April 9, 2013 – Antoinette Thomas, the owner of Any Day World Travel, Inc. in Baltimore, Maryland, qualified this month as a Charter Member of the Destination Wedding & Honeymoon Specialists Association (DWHSAs), North America's largest trade organization representing professional wedding/honeymoon travel consultants.

Thomas won approval to join DWHSAs based on her experience and expertise serving clients in this niche, from engaged couples and their guests with destination weddings and honeymoons to singles and married couples planning vow renewals, babymoons, familymoons, and other romantic getaways.

"DWHSAs recognizes Antoinette for her professional focus on serving wedding and honeymoon travelers," DWHSAs Executive Director Lisa Sheldon said. "She has joined an elite group of U.S. and Canadian travel consultants who represent the best sources of advice and ideas for brides, couples, and their guests seeking their romantic trips of a lifetime."

Thomas submitted extensive details about her business - including travel industry references - to qualify as a DWHSAs Charter Member. She is one of the first 200 U.S. and Canadian agents to be invited to join the association. Antoinette can be reach by phone at 443-275-3232 or by email at athomas@anydayworldtravel.com

ABOUT DWHSAs

Founded in February 2013, the Destination Wedding & Honeymoon Specialists Association (DWHSAs) is the largest trade organization in North America representing professional travel counselors in the wedding, honeymoon, and romantic travel segment.