LOCAL TRAVEL PROFESSIONAL ANTOINETTE THOMAS BECOMES AN SNG CERTIFIED ACCESSIBLE TRAVEL ADVOCATE™

Fort Lauderdale, FL – September 2012 – Antoinette Thomas, travel agent with Any Day World Travel, Inc., recently received certification from Special Needs Group, Inc. (www.specialneedsgroup.com), a global provider of special needs equipment for the travel industry, to specialize in special needs/accessible travel. To earn the distinction, Thomas participated in Special Needs Group's in-depth online 3 module certification program.

Through the program, agents gain an understanding of the special needs/accessible travel market. They learn about the best equipment to rent for special needs travel, ways to market special needs/accessible travel, and more.

Nationwide, one in seven persons has some form of disability, and one in five families is touched. By specializing in special needs/accessible travel, Thomas has the ability to help this large percentage of the population travel in an enjoyable, safe and efficient manner.

Thomas has worked as a travel agent for over seven years, specializing in romance travel, luxury travel, senior citizen travel, and destination cruises. Thomas has been in the travel, tourism and hospitality industries since 1992 sharing her love for travel, exotic destinations, fine dining, and exceptional hospitality. Thomas has in-depth knowledge of the travel industry, direct travel exposure in international destinations, and a passion for helping others travel the world without limitations.

"Through Special Needs' courses, I not only learned how to assist individuals with special needs to enjoy travel, but I found some very valuable new ways to serve the needs of all of my clients," said Thomas. "The population, as well as the travel industry itself, has undergone major changes in the past few years. By completing this program, I have the ability to stay on the cutting edge of these changes, and create opportunities for my clients."
